Norwich, Monday, April 29, 1918.

THE WEATHER.

The severest cyclonic depression noted on the Carolina coast Saturday is moving northeastward over the Atlantic between Bermuda and Nantucket and has doubtless passed beyond a point where it will influence the weather along the coast. A second depression of wide geographic extent and low barometer level is central over Minnesota. This storm has been attended by numerous thunder showers and general rains throughout the Ohio valley, the middle and upper Mississippi valleys, the upper lake region and there also have been thunder showers in the east Gulf and South Atlantic states. Temperature has fluctuated irregularly, but is generally above the seasonal average east of the Mississippi.

Showers are indicated for Atlantic coast states and the lake region Monday with somewhat lower temperatures. Tuesday will be generally fair except in New England and possibly along the Great Lakes, where showery weather will continue. Storm warnings are displayed on the Great Lakes and on the Atlantic coast from Delaware Breakwater to Boston.

Winds for Monday and Tuesday: North Atlantic—Moderate east increasing Monday fair.

Coastal waters southeast increasing Monday rain.

Southern New England: Rain Monday; Tuesday probably fair and slightly cooler in interior.

Observations at Norwich: The following records, reported from Sevin's pharmacy, show the changes in temperature and the barometric changes Saturday and Sunday:

Saturday— Ther. Bar.
7 a. m. 38 30.28
12 m. 42 30.28
5 p. m. 45 30.28
Highest 72, lowest 38.

Sunday— Ther. Bar.
7 a. m. 45 30.19
12 m. 48 30.19
5 p. m. 50 30.19
Highest 79, lowest 44.

Comparisons: Predictions for Saturday: Fair, followed by rain.

Saturday's weather: Fair and warmer.

Predictions for Sunday: Probably rain.

Sunday's weather: Fair, northeast wind.

STOPPED CHILDREN'S COUGH
"Three weeks ago two of my children began coughing and coughing, and I saw they were having an attack of croup," writes Billie M. Roberts, of Taftville. "I got a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar and gave them a few drops before bedtime and soon their coughs stopped and they fell asleep. Next morning their coughs were gone and they were well. I am sure that the Honey and Tar is a standard remedy for colds, bronchitis, and croupy coughs. The Lee & Osgood Co."

BODY FOUND IN YANTIC CANAL

Nina Nakos, Greek, Despondent and Worried Over Wife Left in Greece, Put End to His Life—Had Been Missing For Some Time.

The dead body of Nina Nakos, a Greek, was found in the canal of the Admore Woolen Mill at Yantic on Saturday morning when the water was drawn off. About two weeks ago Nakos, who was a native of the town of Lasova, near Jannina, Greece, disappeared from his home on the Franklin road and as he had been despondent for some time previous his relatives feared he had drowned himself. It was suggested that the canal be drained and at the order of Superintendent John H. Williams, Saturday the canal was drained, and the badly decomposed body of Nakos was found stuck in the mud.

Medical Examiner C. C. Glider-sleeve gave Church and Allen permission to take charge of the body and it was prepared for burial. Mr. Nakos was twenty-seven years old and had resided in America for the past five years most of the time being engaged in the brick and tile business. He was married and his wife was in Greece and on account of the war, Mr. Nakos brooded about her safety. He was making plans to return to Greece when his mind became deranged and the unfortunate ending.

His brother, Mr. Nakos of Rochdale, came here and made arrangements for burial in the Greek cemetery here.

EIGHT ARRESTED ON BOOTLEGGING CHARGES
Federal Officers and Navy Patrol Work With Local Policemen.

Federal officers headed by Special Agent McKone, and aided by the local police and a patrol of two men from the submarine base, conducted a roundup of bootleggers Saturday night on the city on Saturday night when eight men were arrested. On Sunday two more were added to the list who will be arraigned before U. S. Commissioner E. E. Mathewson at his office in this city. This will probably be within a day or two.

Two of those arrested on Saturday night were subsequently discharged from custody for lack of evidence.

A quantity of bottled liquor, mostly whiskey, was also secured as evidence and the testimony of the sailors taken for whom it is alleged the liquor had been delivered.

The list of those taken Saturday night was the following: Frederick Mitchell, 33, Worcester, arrested by Policemen Smith and navy patrol; Daniel Zetto, 38, Norwich, arrested by Federal Officer McKone; Charles J. Nohr, 24, Franklin, James Saunders, 25, Norwich, and Edward Rogers, of Providence, all arrested by Officer McKone and the local police; Patrick Carbray, Norwich, arrested by Policemen Smith and Thomas Mullins, 38, New York, arrested by Sergeant John H. Kane and Policemen Michael Carroll, Kaama Rymasz, 23, North Stonington, arrested by Sgt. Kane and Policemen P. Murphy.

Frederick Mitchell, 33, Norwich, arrested by the navy patrol, and Peter Andrioli, 45, of this city, arrested by Constable Dave Handelman and Policemen Henderson were the Sunday cases.

Carbray and Mullins were the two who were released. He had been seen by Wm. F. Hill, the real estate agent, to place bottled liquor behind a door in the hallway of a building on Franklin square. Mr. Hill grabbed Carbray and handed him over to the officer. It is presumed that the liquor was intended to reach some salaried, but as there had been no delivery the evidence was not considered sufficient to hold the man.

LIEUT. COMMANDER SMITH MARRIED IN NEW HAVEN
Stationed at Submarine Base—Bride is New Haven Girl.

Lieutenant Commander H. Travis Smith of the U. S. S. Chicago, which is stationed at the submarine base on the Thames, was married Saturday afternoon in New Haven to Miss Dorothy Charlotte Sanderson, daughter of Prof. Charles R. Sanderson, of Taftville. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Belmont Smith of Tacoma, Wash.

The wedding took place at Christ the Redeemer church at four o'clock, all members of the wedding party except the bride and her father being in uniform.

The Rev. Father Baker, rector of the church, assisted by the Rev. George J. Paine, rector of St. Paul's church, officiated. Miss Margaret Sanderson, a sister of the bride, who was in the uniform of the superintendent of the Army Medical Aid, was the maid of honor. The best man was Lieutenant Robert C. English.

Following the ceremony there was a reception at the home of Mrs. George L. Paine in New Haven. Lieutenant Commander and Mrs. Smith will reside in New London.

LEADS NEW ENGLAND IN WAR SAVINGS
Connecticut's Per Capita on Thrift Stamps is $22.25.

Sales of war savings and thrift stamps in Connecticut now amount to more than $3,000,000, according to the figures announced at the office of the state director of war savings. Of this amount $2,881,000 has been sold through the medium of the various post offices, and the remainder through the banks.

Figures compiled by the state director show that Connecticut's per capita sales are in excess of $22.25, placing this state in the lead among all the commonwealths of New England.

EIGHTY-FIFTH BIRTHDAY OF GEORGE H. YEOMANS
Is to Be Informally Celebrated at His Home Today.

At his home, No. 21 Lafayette street, George H. Yeomans will today (Monday) celebrate in an informal way the 85th anniversary of his birth. He was born at Norwich Town April 29, 1833, and has been a resident of Norwich all his life. He enjoys good health and is active for one of his years. Being a great reader, he takes a keen interest in the many events of the present day.

Mr. Yeomans will be at home to any of his friends who may wish to call and offer their congratulations.

By a vote of the vestry of Christ church, the offering of one Sunday each month will be devoted to some special purpose outside the regular collection for the first Sunday in May will go to the Red Cross campaign for funds to be held during that month.

Taken With a Fit.
A Norwich man living on Franklin street was taken with a fit on Franklin street near the corner of Bath street on Sunday afternoon about four o'clock. He fell to the ground and sustained a slight cut on his head. Dr. E. J. Brophy who was called, took the man in his automobile to the police station where he remained for a while until he had recovered from the effects of the fit.

Natural headaches are not in it with this accident kind.

TO IMPROVE OPERATION OF OCEAN BEACH CARS

Trolley Company Proposes Turnout and Block Signal System.

In order to help the operation of the trolley line in New London, the Shore Line Electric Railway Co. has given orders to renew the old rail from Pequot avenue and lower Broadway to Neptune and Ocean avenues; also to install block signals at various points along this line so that the operation of the Ocean Beach cars may be controlled with some regularity.

A petition to be placed before the New London city council for permission to install a turnout and block signal system at the intersection of Broad street at Williams street with the necessary block system and it is the intention of the company as soon as this petition is granted to have the turnout and block signals can be installed to change the routing of the cars somewhat in New London. Ocean Beach cars on a half-hourly schedule will run from Ocean Beach via Montauk avenue and Bank street through the Parade and up through Broad street to the cemetery, returning over the same route. Fifteen minute service to the beach will be operated by routing the cars through Williams street and Pequot avenue to improve the situation in New London will also be carried out.

FAREWELL RECEPTION FOR Y. M. H. A. MEMBERS.
Three Are Going into Naval Reserve—Wrist Watches Presented.

On Sunday at the Young Men's Hebrew association rooms the members of the association held a farewell reception for Benjamin Weinstein, Eli Weinman and Joseph Phillips, who were enlisted in the naval reserve and leave this week for active service. Each of the men was presented a wrist watch. Weinstein is the president of the local organization who has enlisted, one of them now being in France. There are 25 members of the local organization now serving in the forces of the United States.

Suit For Foreclosure.
For the foreclosure of a mortgage for $100,000, dated September 27, 1915, on 100 acres of real estate in Preston, Beattie Becker of Bozrah has brought suit against Ida Tucker of this city and the Greenville Grain Co. as a co-defendant.

COLUMBIA
Red Cross Chapter Formally Thanks H. W. Porter for Liberal and Continuous Assistance—Report at War Rally That Bond Subscriptions Are Already 100 Per Cent. Oversubscribed.

At the meeting April 23 a resolution was adopted by the Columbia chapter of the American Red Cross expressing its appreciation to H. W. Porter for his generosity, public spirit and patriotism in offering to the chapter for its sole use and without expense the unoccupied room of the hotel building owned by him, which offer was gladly accepted and fully availed of during the past year. Without these pleasant and well lighted rooms the chapter would have been very difficult for the chapter to have attempted the work which has been accomplished, and to have attained the present proficiency and enviable reputation which it now enjoys.

The chapter members are much indebted to Mr. Porter for the transportation of boxes of clothing, surgical dressings and other materials for the soldier boys to the railway station. Such service has been willingly and gratuitously given. All feel sure that Mr. Porter will feel amply repaid, knowing that it has been his great privilege to enable the town of Columbia to do its part to provide for the comforts and alleviate the sufferings of those gallant men who are fighting for the liberty of our allies, and the continued freedom and autonomy of our own people.

INSPIRING RALLY.
Big Meeting in Town Hall—Loan More Than 100 Per Cent. Oversubscribed.

Tuesday the town had a grand war rally at the town hall under the auspices of the local committee of the state council of defense and the Liberty loan committee. W. C. Robinson, chairman of the committee, presided. The speakers were Attorney General George E. Hinman of Williamsville, the indefatigable condition of the town of Columbia, on the Liberty loan; Mrs. A. H. Benton of Andover, on Woman's Part in Victory; and Principal Walter T. Butler of Williamsville, on Victory or Servitude. The hall was handsomely decorated, and held an enthusiastic audience.

The Liberty loan committee reported that the quota of subscriptions for the town was more than 100 per cent. oversubscribed. During the evening several inquiries regarding the bonds were made and a number of subscriptions received. The town has an enthusiastic committee who are determined to put the loan up to the 300 per cent. mark.
